

PARENTS

If your children complain of headache, say they can't stand to study at school or in the evening at home, it is a sure symptom of defective vision and should be corrected at once.

Travelers' Guide.

Passenger trains arrive and leave Reynoldsville as follows: Allegheny Valley Railway. Eastward. Westward.

A Little of Everything.

Williams for shoes. Friday is Arbor Day. Robinson's for footwear. "Corner Grocery" Oct. 25th. The sewerage will soon be finished.

George Ren, who went to Bucknell University, Lewisburg, several weeks ago, had to return home on account of being sick.

Alfred A. Farland, of New York city, the greatest banjo performer in the world, in the opera house in the near future. Watch for date.

William Hellberg, of Rathmel, and Tilda Tangren, of Prescottville, were married by Squire E. Neff, at his office in this place, Monday evening.

The program committee of the Clarion District conference of the M. E. church, to be held at Port Barnet next month, met at Port Barnet yesterday and made up the program for conference.

Anna Kovich, of Big Soldier, had Andrew Walla, of the same place, arrested for assault and battery. The case was settled Monday by Walla paying the plaintiff $5.00 and paying costs of prosecution.

Ten weeks yet remain of the fall term at the Clarion State Normal School. Most of the farm work is finished throughout the country and some of the young people are preparing to attend the Normal.

For Sale—One of the best farms of 100 acres in McCalmont township, with fruit trees, never failing springs of water, will be sold for one-half real value. Inquire of Smith M. McCreight, Reynoldsville, Pa.

Owing to liberal patronage and request from many people who have not had time to see her, Mrs. Smith, the medium and fortune teller, will remain at Mrs. Copping's until one week from Saturday, the 28th inst.

Mrs. William Stewart died at her home at Eleonora Thursday last. Her remains were shipped from this place to New Bethlehem Friday and buried at that place Saturday forenoon. Mrs. Stewart was 27 years old.

James Delaney and Jarvis Williams have moved their barbershop, or rather have opened a new barbershop in the basement of Hotel Imperial. They sold their old outfit and now have, without doubt, one of the finest shops to be found in Jefferson county.

Alvin D. Siple, who has had stomach trouble several years and has consulted twenty-seven doctors about his trouble, went to Philadelphia Monday night to be treated in the Jefferson Medical Hospital. It is to be hoped that Alvin will be greatly benefitted at the hospital.

Captain John M. Brinker and wife, of Buffalo, N. Y., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Mellinger a day last week. Mr. Brinker, who was captain of the Seventy-eighth Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, was at Punxsutawney Thursday attending the reunion of that regiment.

A pleasant little wedding party assembled in the parlor of Hotel Belnap last Thursday afternoon, October 12th. The contracting parties were Frank Yates, of Eleonora, and Miss Myrtle Yohe, of Paradise. They were united in matrimony by Rev. A. E. Hooper, of this place.

Mrs. Mary A. Gayhart, of Hot Springs, South Dakota, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Beer, in West Reynoldsville, since the middle of June, started for her home the first of this week. Miss Cora Beer, youngest sister of Mrs. Gayhart, accompanied her to Dakota where she expects to remain a year.

Math Mohney, of Reynoldsville, Democratic nominee for sheriff, was in town this week calling on friends and looking after his political interests. Mr. Mohney is a man of exceptional ability and his qualification for filling the office he seeks is highly commendable. He is honest and upright, and if elected will make a good sheriff.—Brockwayville Record.

At the reunion of the Seventy-eighth regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, held at Punxsutawney last Thursday, the following officers were elected: President, R. P. Scott, of Butler; vice-presidents, Captain John M. Brinker, of Buffalo, N. Y., H. V. Ashburg, of Leechburg, Pa., and Captain C. B. Gillespie, of Freeport, Pa.; secretary, William A. Lowery, of Butler. The old veterans had a delightful day for the reunion. The next reunion will be held at Kittanning.

Up at Kano the school board is going to take action in regard to so many young boys of the town being on the streets after nine o'clock at night. The Republican says the school board will ask the borough council to pass a curfew ordinance which will require all persons under a certain age to be off the street after nine o'clock. Lads are conspicuous on the streets of Reynoldsville at night, but we have not heard that any effort will be made to have a curfew law passed.

In every town there are plenty of men who have most, if not all, of their printing done outside of town and yet when they meet with any kind of a reverse, such as losing the end of their toe, or having their wife run away with a coon, expect the local paper to shed crocodile tears and slobber over them. Any man who cannot be a friend to the home paper in times of prosperity should not expect nor ask the paper to befriend him when the hand of fate has turned against him.—Big Run Tribune.

Skull Fractured. Grant Solida, a lad about seven years old, son of Grant Solida, sr., fell off a horse one day last week and fractured his skull.

Baptist Services. Rev. Whitmore, of Richardsville, will preach in the Baptist church at this place to-morrow, Thursday, evening and next Sunday morning and evening.

Mine Accident. Martin Flannery had his right hand badly injured in Big Soldier mine Saturday by having it caught between a loaded car and roof of mine. Two fingers were almost torn off.

Will Enforce the Law. The Board of Health of this borough has served notice that after November 13th the law compelling school children to be vaccinated, will be enforced in all cases where it is not complied with before that date.

Water Will be Shut Off. All persons using water from the Reynoldsville Water Company lines, are hereby notified that the water will be shut off at 1:00 p. m. to-morrow, Thursday, October 19th, and will not be turned on again for several hours.

Fishing for a Big Industry. A meeting of the board of trade was held in Centennial hall Monday evening to consider an important proposition concerning the establishment of a large industry at this place. The board took up the proposition in a business like manner and there is good hopes of the industry being located here.

Co. L Reunion. There will be a reunion of Company L, 16th Regiment Pa. Volunteers, and all soldiers of the late Spanish-American war at Sykesville to-morrow, Thursday, October 19th. A banquet and reception will be given the young veterans. All soldiers are requested to wear their uniforms. There will be a dance in the hall in the evening.

Charter to be Applied For. Elsewhere in this issue of THE STAR will be found a legal notice to the effect that on the 16th day of next month an application will be made to Gov. Stone for a charter for the Reynoldsville Traction Company. The capitalists who are backing up the proposed trolley line mean business and by this time next year the line will be in operation.

Twenty Sheep Dead. A car of sheep, that was shipped from Parker to eastern markets, arrived at this place Saturday morning and there were twenty dead sheep in the car. We understand the shipper had put too many sheep in the car. The car was stopped here and the sheep were unloaded. The dead were hauled away and buried and the others were fed, watered and then loaded into car again and started on the journey east at noon.

A Pleasant Surprise. A pleasant surprise awaited Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Hooper last Friday evening on returning home from the reception held in honor of the new Methodist minister. They found the parsonage taken possession of by the near neighbors and friends who came laden with gifts of love and toil. To say that every one had a happy time does not express half the truth. Each one seemed eager of an opportunity to make others glad.

Rope Haulage at Sherwood. Several years ago the Sherwood mine, near Sandy Valley, which is operated by the Jefferson & Clearfield Coal & Iron Company, was opened, but it has not been operated very extensively, only two mules being used to haul the coal out of the mine. The company has decided to get more coal out of the Sherwood mine and a rope haulage and air compressor is being put in that mine. The work was begun Monday. Five company houses will be built near the mine.

Not Preaching This Year. Dr. F. H. Beck, of Randolph, N. Y., formerly presiding elder of the Clarion district of the M. E. church, on account of poor health, was granted a year off by the recent annual conference held at Jamestown, N. Y. Dr. Beck will reside at Randolph, but a young unmarried minister will do the work at that place until the next annual conference. It is to be hoped that during the year Dr. Beck will regain his health and be able to take up work again at the next annual conference. Dr. Beck is father of F. H. Beck of this place.

Objected to Contract. We stated last week that at a citizens' meeting in West Reynoldsville on the 9th instant the majority of those present were not in favor of lighting that town with electricity. We have since been informed that the statement was not exactly correct. The citizens did not object to having the town lighted with electricity, but that they did object to signing the ten year contract that Mr. Ferrin had drawn up for the borough to sign. Since the meeting on the 9th instant a petition has been circulated in West Reynoldsville and some of those who were not in favor of the lights at the meeting have signed the petition.

Killed at DuBois Saturday. William Stiner, brother-in-law of Irvin Kunes, of Reynoldsville, was killed at the B. & P. R'y car shops in DuBois Saturday morning while helping to unload a car of timbers. From the DuBois Express we learn the following facts concerning the accident: The standards had been removed from the side of the car and Mr. Stiner was in a stooping posture fixing the skids for sliding the timbers from the car on to a pile of timbers when two pieces of timber, released by removal of standards, fell upon him. One of them struck him on the side and knocked him over towards the pile of timbers as the other one struck him on the head. His skull was crushed between the two timbers and he lived less than twenty minutes. His only exclamations after the accident were: "Oh My!" and "Where is poor mother?" Mr. Stiner leaves a wife and two children. The remains were taken to Beech Creek Saturday for burial.

Red Peppers Instead of Meat. During the past summer at least 300 barrels of red peppers have been shipped into Reynoldsville to several Italian grocerymen. Fifty barrels were shipped in last week. When the statement is made that the Italians fry and eat the red peppers instead of meat, then the question might be asked, "Are their stomachs made of cast iron?" M. J. Farrell, agent at A. V. R'y, made inquiry one day last week when the red peppers were being hauled away, and the Italian informed him that when fried in olive oil or lard the red peppers were good. Mr. Farrell was induced to taste one and was surprised to find that it did not burn his mouth, as he expected, and that it had a good sweet taste. By some process the "hotness" is removed from red peppers and the Italians are very fond of them when fried.

Death of Mrs. Kirkwood. Mrs. Hannah J. Kirkwood died at her home at Sugar Hill Saturday afternoon, October 14. She was born at Williamsburg, Centre county, Pa., in 1823. Her maiden name was Hannah J. Flick. Her husband, A. J. Kirkwood, died about nine years ago. The deceased is survived by four sons and one daughter, as follows: John Kirkwood, of New Castle, Finetta, George, Charles and Adam Kirkwood, of Sugar Hill. Mrs. Kirkwood was a member of the Saints denomination. Funeral services were held in the little church at Sugar Hill Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. S. McCoy. Interment was made in the Norris cemetery.

Five Years in Penitentiary. Fred Walker, of Brockwayville, who was charged with the murder of Ella Haviland, which occurred at Brookport, Elk county, several months ago, was tried in the Elk county court last week and was convicted of manslaughter. Walker testified on the witness stand that he had quarrelled with the woman, that she had drawn a revolver for the purpose of shooting him and in the scuffle with her the weapon was discharged, both shots taking effect upon her person. Friday Judge Mayer sentenced Walker to five years in the Western Penitentiary.

Republican Mass Meeting. A Republican mass meeting was held in the court house at Brookville last evening. The famous Keystone band and some leading Republicans of this place went to Brookville on the 1:38 p. m. train yesterday and a large number went to the county seat on the excursion train that left here about seven o'clock last evening. This train returned as far as DuBois after the meeting. Among the prominent speakers at this mass meeting were Generals J. P. S. Gobin and J. A. Wiley, Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart and Col. E. E. Robbins.

Surprise Party. Mrs. Kate Harris, of Prescottville, was given a surprise party on the 10th inst. A number of friends invaded her home without a moment's notice of their intentions. It was a pleasant occasion, not only to Mrs. Harris but for all who were there. The presents were of a substantial kind—something to keep soul and body together—such as flour, potatoes, &c. One good neighbor sent a load of coal, so that Mrs. Harris' coal house and larder were well filled when the party was over. Mrs. Harris highly appreciated the kindness of the surprisers.

THE NEW PASTOR. Rev. P. A. Reno Preached His First Sermons Here Sunday to Large Congregations.

Rev. P. A. Reno, now pastor of the M. E. church, and family—wife and one daughter—arrived in Reynoldsville Thursday afternoon. They were given a reception in the lecture room of the M. E. church Friday evening, which was attended by a large number of members and friends of the church. S. S. Robinson delivered the address of welcome, which was responded to by Rev. Reno. Rev. A. E. Hooper was then called upon for a short address. After the speech-making cake, coffee and fruit were served. The Epworth League had charge of the reception. It was a pleasant occasion. Rev. Reno preached two excellent sermons Sunday to large congregations. From the Dunkirk Daily Herald we clip the following notice:

"Rev. Perry A. Reno and family left for Reynoldsville, Jefferson county, Pa., this afternoon, where they will make their future home. For four years Rev. Mr. Reno has officiated as pastor of the First Methodist church in this city. During his pastorate he has made many friends, not only in his denomination but in the community. He is an ideal minister, courteous, firm, faultless in character, kind in visiting the sick and afflicted, and a pulpit orator of no mean ability. His sermons show research and thought, pleasing all who hear them. Dunkirk people, regardless of creed and belief, are sorry to lose Rev. Reno and family and wish for their happiness in their new field of labor."

"Corner Grocery." The famously funny "Corner Grocery" with Daisy Chaplin as the bad kid. It is a jolly harum-scarum, slap-dash farce comedy which has its beneficial influences on harassed, overwrought humanity. It is a laugh provoker of the first water and the audience is kept in one continual roar of laughter from start to finish. Miss Chaplin is a clever little artist and in the part of Patsie, the "bad kid," shows she is an actress of no mean order. She has an excellent singing voice and will render all the latest up-to-date songs, assisted by the whole company. The plot of the play is very brief and unimportant, as the play was constructed for laughing purposes alone. The supporting company includes James Nesbitt, Billy Bowers, Wm. R. Healy, Kate Medinger, Grace Cahill, and others. Medleys, songs and dances will be introduced by Miss Chaplin, assisted by the entire company. Special scenery is carried for the production, which ranks among the best on the road today. At the Reynolds opera house Wednesday evening, Oct. 25th.

Must Put up a Sign. A bit of information which may save some of the local business men trouble is the following extract from a law passed by the last legislature: "Each dealer shall cause to be placed permanently at his or their place of business a sign describing the business in which the party is engaged, with his or their name or names upon the same, such sign, and a violation of the provisions of this section shall be punishable with a fine of ten dollars, said fine to be collected as fines of like amount are now by the law collected and to be paid into the county treasury."—Kittanning Republican.

A Card of Thanks. During the illness and death of our beloved daughter, Myram, we, the parents and other members of family, cannot find words fittingly or expressively to convey to the many kind friends who rendered their assistance during our bereavement and sorrow, and cordially extend to all our heartfelt thanks to the loved ones for the care shown her during her brief illness, also the beautiful floral wreaths prepared during her demise by loving friends. May she rest in peace.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES McMILLEN. Having just returned from New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburg, I will have a beautiful assortment of pattern hats and bonnets to show Friday and Saturday of this week, October 20 and 21.
